Automation in Homes by 1960 Predicted Here

Home automation by 1960 was predicted here today by T. T. Arden, Los Angeles, president of the Gas Appliance Manufacturers' Association, members of which make 98 per cent of all U. S. gas equipment.

Opening the 20th annual convention of GAMA at El Mirador Hotel on the 140th anniversary of the first use of gas in the United States at Fredonia, N. Y., for street lighting, Arden said that automatic processes are not the exclusive property of industry.

"Automation is fast becoming a reality in the home for cooking, heating, air conditioning, laundrying and hot water production," Arden told over 500 GAMA convention delegates.

Because of its flexibility and economy, gas has contributed heavily to the automation revolution in the home, while continuing to replace coal as the principal source of energy in the production of electrical power, Arden said.

In addition, the GAMA president declared, gas is involved in more than 25,000 industrial processes producing a variety of consumer goods, from cosmetics to automobiles.

Over 11 trillion cubic feet of natural gas will be used in the United States during 1955, with more than 50 per cent of America's electric energy dependent on it.

The electronic age, Arden said, will become increasingly dependent on gas as automation in both home and factory reaches full swing.

The Vinegaroon is half spider and half scorpion.
One of the strangest things found in the California Desert was a small stone figure of a horse, dug up by a road gang along the shore of the Salton Sea. The geological formation in which it was found showed that the sculptor lived thousands of years ago. Yet horses were unknown in America before the Spanish Conquest.

The Mecca post office is the lowest in the United States—it's 197 feet below sea level.

CREDIT MANAGERS HEAR REPORT ON PROSPERITY

The trend of prosperity can lull credit grantors, on the wholesale, manufacturing and financial institutional level, into over extending credit, Mortimer J. Davis, executive vice-president of the New York Credit Managers Association, said Wednesday. Davis acted as spokesman for the 34 representatives of the National Credit Managers Association who yesterday afternoon ended a three-day symposium at Palm Springs Biltmore Hotel.

G. W. Sites, president of the Los Angeles branch of the Association, acted as host. The Credit Managers Association is second in membership, as a business organization, only to the Chamber of Commerce. Sites is Los Angeles Times credit manager.

The aim of the conclave, held annually and for the first time in Palm Springs, was to overcome technical difficulties which have arisen during the past year regarding credit.

Davis, who is also president of the Society of Former Special Agents of the F. B. I. spoke during the meeting as a consultant in an effort to coordinate policy between the east and west.

He said the overall picture, in relation to the nation's economy, presents a view of continued prosperity, in spite of the recent stock market drops, and that in mid 1956 a cutback may appear. Davis added that the economy of the nation is sound, basically.

The group, which nationally has 35,000 clients who subscribe to its information service, collectively believes that the market fluctuation will not substantially affect our long term economic situation.

STATEMENTS BY DAVIS
were corroborated by A. D. Johnson, executive vice-president of the Los Angeles Association. Johnson stated that every bank in America is a member, or subscriber, to the national organization, as well as other institutions of financial basis. They include importers exporters and loan associations.

With what Davis called "shop talk" the meeting made plans to combat the dropping stock market by making conditions better for agencies which extend credit on a wholesale level. He said recommendations made to government forces in Washington have been given the utmost consideration in the past. More recommendations will be made.

Anderson concluded by saying that a realistic approach to the economic system, on a national scale, will check the fears which seem to be growing in regard to large-size loans.

Savings Hearing Is Opened Today

WASHINGTON, D. C. — A hearing was opened here today before an officer of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board on the application of six Palm Springs residents for permission to organize a Federal Savings and Loan Association in the California resort community.

Applicants are Oliver B. Jaynes, William C. Tackett, Charles N. Becker, Charles Farrell, Mrs. Robert Howard and Percy M. Whiteside. They would become directors of the association if a charter was granted.

Here to testify were two of the applicants Tackett and Jaynes, and Gerry Richardson of Newport Beach, a former Palm Springs bank official. The applicants are being represented by Robert Bussey, an attorney of St. Petersburg, Florida.

Lyle Newcomer, Los Angeles attorney and Elmer Walberg are appearing to protest the granting of the application. They represent Coachella Valley Savings and Loan Association.

Education Board to Meet Tonight

Board of education, Palm Springs Unified School district, will hold its regular monthly meeting at 7:30 p.m., tonight, Frances Stevens school.

Among items to be discussed will be inauguration of other projects authorized in the recent $2,125,000 bond issue.

Season's Conventions to Attract 16,000 to Village

More than 16,000 delegates will flood into the Village within the next eight months, to attend more than two score conventions listed for Palm Springs this season.

A major part of these bookings were done during the Summer months and daily inquiries received by the Chamber of Commerce and various hotels in Palm Springs will boost the total much higher within the next month.

Hotels, restaurants, shops and the wide variety of other businesses will benefit by the influx of conventioners from all parts of the nation, and these visitors will prove a challenge to local townspeople to give out with the traditional courtesy, hospitality and friendliness of the West.

School Head Denies Ban on Sun Dresses

Dr. Muelder Says No Edict Issued on School Attire

School Supt. Wallace Muelder today denied that he had issued an edict concerning the wearing of sun dresses by women teachers in the Palm Springs schools, either formally or informally, but added that he expects every teacher to dress in "a fashion commensurate with what their responsibility and dignity demands."

And, to his knowledge, he added, no other administrator has issued such an order.

PALM SPRINGS Faculty Club, composed of all certificated personnel in the school system, today also presented a report of proper attire for teachers after a thorough study of the situation by its Professional Relations committee.

President Chester Sproule said that the report stated: "Teachers' attire should be appropriate to the way of life and climate of the community, and in good taste."

It did not delve into specific cases or what was considered right for Palm Springs.

DR. MUELDER also declined to detail specific items of dress, such as sun dresses and not wearing stockings in classrooms, two items which reports had as being in bad taste.

Attire is governed by the Professional Code of Ethics for school personnel, as is general behavior, the schools superintendent said.

Professional attitude of each teacher will take care of the matter, he commented, and added that he could see no need for any order concerning teachers' attire.

SPOULE said that the question of attire was raised at an administrative meeting prior to the start of school, and he referred it to the Professional Relations Committee for study, and recommendation.

Dr. Muelder had never commented on the controversial sun-back dress and stocking questions to him, he added.

Ralph Watt, committee chairman, also said that "the superintendent has not to my knowledge at any time issued any restriction as to teacher attire."

REGARDING THE REPORT that a ban had been discussed and that this was ordered by the committee, he commented that the "individual who gave out the information regarding the meeting was completely misinformed."

"I find it extremely difficult to believe that any member of the committee could make such a misconstrued statement," he added. "It is completely untrue."

Iran Assailed by Russia for Joining Pact

Pravda Editorial Says Security of Soviet Threatened

By HENRY SHAPIRO United Press Staff Correspondent

MOSCOW (UP)—The Communist Party newspaper Pravda charged today that Iran's accession to the pro-Western Baghdad pact violates Iran's own agreements with Russia.

One of these, the Soviet-Iranian treaty of 1921, provides Russia the right to send its troops into neighboring Iran if Soviet security is threatened from there and Iran's government cannot cope with this threat.

Diplomatic sources here foresaw the theoretical possibility that the Soviet union might invoke this 1921 treaty if it felt its security threatened by Iran's membership in the Baghdad pact.

THAT MOSCOW considers itself threatened was clearly and sharply affirmed yesterday in Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov's official protest to Iran against the Baghdad pact.

This feeling was made more clear today in Pravda's three-column front page editorial containing one of the bitterest attacks on Western policy in the Middle East in recent months.

Pravda said Iran's accession would constitute violation of the two nations' 1921 treaty on guarantees and neutrality. The 1927 pact supplemented the 1921 treaty under which Russia reserved the right to meet any threat to its security within Iran's borders.

IRAN FORMALLY NOTIFIED Iraq yesterday it intended to join the Baghdad alliance. Iraq already has mutual security treaties with Pakistan and Turkey.

Pravda, the Communist Party's most authoritative organ, characterized the Baghdad pact as an "aggressive anti-Soviet military grouping" and another link in a chain of cold war measures like NATO in Europe and SEATO in Southeast Asia.

The editorial was published less than a day after Communist Party leader Nikita S. Khrushchev urged the abolition of NATO.

Khrushchev proposed this to Canadian External Affairs Minister Lester Pearson during their talks yesterday with Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin in the Crimea.

PRAVDA coupled its attack on Iran with an attack on Iraq which it described as a "lick-spittle" of Middle East colonializers.

Pravda said Iran's World War II neutrality helped the nation

President Assumes More Duties as Recovery Gains

By MERRIMAN SMITH United Press White House Writer

DENVER (UP) — President Eisenhower's increasing resumption of government direction was underlined today when he sent his principal aide to give the Cabinet the chief executive's views on matters it will take up at a meeting tomorrow.

Sherman Adams, the assistant to the President, flew to Washington this morning after a bedside briefing session with Mr. Eisenhower yesterday at Fitzsimmons Army Hospital.

Meanwhile, the President awoke this morning in what the 7 a.m. MST medical bulletin from his doctors described as "a happy mood," the first time that precise description has been used since the President entered the hospital September 24 with a coronary thrombosis.

Beat Down Move for $100 Monthly Pension After 60

By CHARLES TAYLOR

MIAMI (UP)—J. Addington Wagner, an attorney of Battle Creek, Mich., and Purple Heart winner in World War II, was elected national commander of the American Legion today.

Wagner who has traveled an estimated 86,000 miles in the last two years in behalf of the Legion and his candidacy, was named with only 35 votes against him.

JACOB KESSLER, Worcester, Mass., nominated Dwight S. McCarty of Fitchburg, Mass., and then asked to withdraw the nomination when present National Commander Seaborn P. Collins suggested to make it unanimous for Wagner.

The Legion convention at today's session also:

1. Beat down a determined attempt to put three million Legion members behind a move for $100 a month pensions for all veterans when they become 60 years of age.

2. Overwhelmingly defeated, after hot debate, a move from the floor calling on the United States to withdraw from the United Nations.

3. Killed a resolution asking Congress to give statehood to Hawaii and postponed for a year a similar resolution about Alaska.

4. Sent to President Eisenhower a "Happy Birthday" and "quick recovery" message.

5. Adopted a hands-off policy toward India and South Korea, recommending that this country withdraw from the Korean Armistice Commission so South Korea may "deal in its own way" with the threat of renewed Communist Chinese aggression.

Stocks Gain the Yield to Profit Taking

NEW YORK (UP)—Stocks encountered profit taking today after adding nearly four points in the Dow-Jones industrial average at mid-session. Leading shares slipped off from their highs. Some of them registered declines near closing.

In the early dealings when prices were at their best Du Pont sold at 209½ up 7; Texas & Pacific Railroad 148 up 5; Union Pacific 157½ up 2½; American Hawaiian Steamship 77½ up 2½; and Peoples Gas 149 up 2.

Boeing touched 65½ up 3½ and Douglas Aircraft 74½ up 1½ on news these companies had received a 269 million dollar order from Pan American World Airways for 45 jet-powered airliners. United Aircraft, whose Pratt & Whitney Division will power the craft reached 85½ up 1½. These prices were shaded along with the main list late in the session. Chrysler slipped back to a small loss. General Motors lost a gain of 1½ points.

The rails dipped from their early highs and oils turned irregular.

Red China Says All Americans Have Been Freed

By MELLVILLE MARK United Press Staff Correspondent

GENEVA (UP)—Communist China said today it is "groundless" to hope that any missing American servicemen from the Korean War are still held in China.

The Chinese Communists also berated the United States for injecting the issue into the Geneva talks between the U. S. and Red Chinese ambassadors. The United States counter-charged that Red China is offering to free American civilians who in reality are U. S. turncoats who did not want to return home.

THE COMMUNIST Chinese statements were made today in a broadcast over Peiping Radio which accused the United States of adopting "new obstructive tactics" in raising the question of the missing servicemen.

The American statement came from a U. S. spokesman who said a Chinese offer to hand over 66 Americans included 16 turncoats from the Korean War. The Communists said 47 of the 66 could go home "at any time."

"We are still looking for about 500 American nationals we believe are still held on the Chinese mainland," the American spokesman said.

PEIPING RADIO in the broadcast that coincided with the American statements said such reports were "groundless" and "a fabrication."

The Communists then accused the United States of holding 14,000 missing Chinese prisoners.

Peiping Radio quoted the Peiping Peoples Daily, the official newspaper of Red China. The newspaper's editorial also was circulated by the Communist New China News Agency.

THE PEOPLES DAILY accused the United States of "open violation" of the pre-conference agreement to keep the current Geneva talks secret.

"This is not the first time that the U. S. has violated the agreement between the two sides on the issuance of information regarding the Sino-American talks," it said.

The talks began August 3 here between Wang Ping-nan, Chinese Communist Ambassador to Poland and U. Alexis Johnson, U. S. Ambassador to Czechoslovakia.

Since the talks began Communist China has released some 15 Americans.

Pan-American to Put 45 Jets Into Air Service

NEW YORK (UP)—Pan American World Airways today announced the purchase of 45 jet-powered airliners from American firms at a total cost of 269 million dollars.

The planes will be the first jet transports delivered by American manufacturers and the first to go into regular service.

The giant jets will double the capacity of the Pan American fleet and cut the flying time from New York to London to six hours and 15 minutes.

JUAN T. TRIPPE, president of Pan American, said the Boeing Airplane Company of Seattle will supply 20 of the jets and Douglas Aircraft Company of Santa Monica, California, will supply 25. The jet turbines used to propel the four-engine craft will be manufactured by the Pratt and Whitney Division of United Aircraft Corp. of East Hartford, Connecticut.

Pan American said it will pay Boeing 109 million dollars and Douglas 160 million for the jets. It said it has placed additional orders with Douglas for 33 DC7C, non-jet transports, in the amount of 88 million bringing its total commitment to 357 millions for new equipment.

THE ENTIRE FLEET of new jet airliners will be in service by 1961. They will carry from 104 to 108 passengers each in de luxe accommodations and up to 131 tourist class.

Both the Boeing and Douglas liners will have a cruising speed of 575 miles an hour at 30,000 feet. They will be placed in service on transatlantic, South American, and transpacific runs starting in December, 1958.

Trippie said the planes will provide a new high standard in speed and in passenger comfort. Vibration will be eliminated and the sound of the jet engines will be audible only to passengers in the extreme rear portion of the cabin. The cruising altitude of the planes will be well above the weather.

SAN FRANCISCO UP — Atty. Gen. Pat Brown today pledged his support of Adlai Stevenson in the 1956 presidential race.

Work Resumed at Kaiser Plant After Walk Out

FONTANA (AP) — The Kaiser Steel Mill here resumed operations today following the settlement of a 16-day walkout of 350 office and clerical workers. Union officials said the workers along with 6500 other employees returned to their jobs after an agreement was reached last night. Company spokesmen said it will be at least 10 days before the mill again will be on a normal production basis. They said it will take that long to heat furnaces to proper temperatures.

The walkout was touched off when railroad yard workers refused to work after five employees were reprimanded for failing to follow orders of a foreman. The work halt spread to the clerical side several days later.

A new agreement gives the office and clerical workers a 20 cent hourly wage increase.

avoid catastrophe and that "if Iran's neutral position served national interests in the past, it does so even more in the present."

The Soviet and Britain occupied Iran in August, 1941, to prevent German infiltration of the oil-rich country that became one of the major stations on the U. S. lend-lease supply line. The action was taken under terms of the 1921 treaty.

In Washington, U. S. strategists said the United States does not expect Russia to take direct action against Iran for joining the defense pact but is remaining alert to the possibility nevertheless.

Eisenhower Day Proclaimed for Village Friday

Palm Springs will directly observe the President's Birthday with a party for the Friday Nighters, Junior High social group, at the Youth Center. There will be eight birthday cakes at the Birthday Dance, donated by Chl Chl, Howard Manor, Dorothy Gray Inc., El Mirador Hotel, KCMJ, The Dunes, Doll House and Biltmore Hotel.

The Doll House will provide an orchestra for dancing. Mayor Florian Boyd today issued a proclamation designating Friday, October 14 as Eisenhower Birthday Thanksgiving Day, and calling on all citizens to participate.

The Mayor's proclamation follows: "WHEREAS, the radio and television industry already has launched a campaign to observe the President's birthday—Friday, October 14—as Eisenhower Day, and

"WHEREAS, Palm Springs was particularly honored last year by the personal visit here of President Dwight D. Eisenhower, Mrs. Eisenhower and their official party, and

"WHEREAS, all citizens of the United States, of all religious faiths, political parties and national groups revere the office of the Presidency as embodying the national prestige and dignity, and respect the character and achievements of Dwight D. Eisenhower as an outstanding representative of American Way of Life in the fields of military service, educational administration and world statesmanship.

"NOW, THEREFORE, I, Florian G. Boyd, as Mayor of Palm Springs, do proclaim President Eisenhower's 65th Birthday—this Friday, October 14—as Eisenhower Day and ask all citizens of Palm Springs to pray for the President's speedy and complete recovery and for the nation's continuing spiritual growth and prosperity."

World's Tallest Man, Over Eight Feet, Succumbs

PORTLAND (AP) — Clifford Marshall Thompson, known as the world's tallest man, died in a local hospital yesterday. He would have been 51 next Tuesday.

Thompson, a practicing attorney in Oregon since 1950, was eight feet, seven inches tall. His widow, Mary, said death was due to gallstones and "an ailment of the liver" and not to any affliction connected with his great height. She said he had been ill for some time.

He used his unusual size many times in helping promote civic enterprises.

Six from Village to Aid Formation of Dem Council

Six delegates from Palm Springs were named last night to meet in Hemet Sunday with Democrat Club delegates from other Riverside county areas to set up a Riverside County Democratic Council, according to Herbert Hass, who presided over last night's meeting at the Wars Memorial Building.

The meeting of the Palm Springs area Democratic Club commenced with an address by Sen. George Maypole, former state senator from Illinois. His talk was necessarily short because of recent surgery.

The main topic of the evening was the planned development of a constitution for the Riverside County Democratic Council. Robert Erwin, a teacher in Riverside Unified School District, addressed the 75 persons attending, and explained the methods proposed in framing the constitution.

With a delegate ratio of one representative for every 20 dues-paying members of the club, there are 102, and one delegate-at-large, the following men were named to attend the Sunday meeting at Hemet: Martin Bruton, Lawrence Chapman, Sol Forman, Herman Arnold Jr., Harry Reaves and Hass.

Approximately 50 delegates from the country area are expected to attend.

Democrats Sure of Victory if Ike is Not Candidate

By VINCENT J. BURKE
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON (AP) — House Democratic Leader John W. McCormack today predicted a close presidential race next year if President Eisenhower runs again and a sure victory for the Democrats if he doesn't.

McCormack also predicted the Democrats not only will keep control of Congress but will increase their strength in both the Senate and House whether Mr. Eisenhower seeks reelection or not.

McCormack, in an interview, estimated that Democrats will have a "good chance" of scoring a net gain of 12 to 20 seats in the House and three to five in the Senate.

The Massachusetts Democrat said he anticipates a "wide open race" for the Democratic presidential nomination. He said recently that he would not be surprised if Adlai E. Stevenson failed to get the nod.

There are several "excellent candidates," he said, but he declined to speculate on who is most likely to win.

Princess, Capt. Townsend Keep England Guessing

LONDON (AP)—Princess Margaret and Group Capt. Peter Townsend went their separate ways in London today, while all of Britain wondered, "Is it yes?" to the question of their reported romance.

Margaret arrived by overnight train from Scotland this morning and went straight to Clarence House, the royal residence where she lives in maidenly splendor with her mother, Queen Mother Elizabeth.

Townsend arrived last night, slept late today, and then drove off quietly to his tailor's, with another woman.

But the riddle of the most tantalizing royal romance since King Edward VIII gave up his throne for American Wallace Warfield Simpson continued to dominate Britain's newspaper front pages.

Queen of Salton Sea to be Chosen for All Regattas

SALTON SEA — Queen of the Desert Sea, to reign for the coming year over all regattas on "Salton" will be selected on deck at the Beach House, Salton Sea Beach, 8:00 P. M. Saturday, October 15th. Valley beauties from Palm Springs to Calexico will vie for the honor of representing the Colorado Desert's scintillating Salton Sea, which is becoming increasingly popular with local as well as distant sports enthusiasts. Besides trophies, gifts and orchids, Miss Salton Sea of 1955 and her runner up are scheduled to receive swim and ski instructions from top trainers. They will be guests of honor always at the Beach House and will preside over all special events for the coming year, according to Helen Burns, resort owner.

Decorations typical of the Beach will prevail for the ceremony at the Beach House Saturday night. A buffet supper beginning at 6:30 open to the public, will precede the contest.

Clay Stearns, popular Palm Desert business man and stage director and entertainer will again be on hand to Emcee, with his general good humor, dancing and antics. Wilma Walker, Miss Salton Sea of 1954-55, will be present to welcome her successor and to take part in the ceremony. Owen Harlow, a beauty herself and much loved entertainer of Indio, will offer songs appropriate for the occasion while a couple from Arthur Murray's studio in El Centro will entertain with a dance routine.

Mrs. Burns urges all girls who are interested to contact their local Chambers of Commerce for further instruction. Entries will be accepted until Saturday. The girls are to wear one-piece bathing suits, high heels. They are asked to be at the Beach House by 7:00 Saturday evening.

The week-end of October 22 and 23 is to be another busy one at Salton Sea, according to Helen Burns. Besides the National Speedboat Regatta at Desert Shores, there is a Luau Saturday night, at the Beach House, for which reservations are now being taken and a Ski Meet Sunday by Southern California Ski Club.

Sol Lesser Purchases Land at Indio for Home Project

PALM DESERT—Motion Picture Producer Sol Lesser has purchased 359 acres of land on the outskirts of Indio and plans to turn them into a multimillion dollar desert home development.

Eight hundred homes are scheduled to be constructed with their start scheduled for "around the first of the year."

The development, which is located east of the Odium Cochran ranch and one and a half miles from the new million dollar shopping center under construction in Indio, will be strictly residential homes, and will be known as Oasis de Sol (Oasis of the Sun). The project will follow the topography of the natural desert, with roads following the natural desert trails. Homesites will be provided in a choice of gently sloping or 30 and 40 foot elevation on natural dunes.

A portion of the development will be set aside for five and 10 acre rancheros. All property owners in the development will

VOICE OF THE DESERT
(Editor's Note: This is the first of a Weekly Forum series, where Villagers are invited to express their views or questions, and receive an answer from the person best acquainted with the subject.)

QUESTION — "We realize that Palm Springs is growing into more than a small Village. This is definitely evidenced in the spending spree which has started in the community. Last Fall a $2,125,000 bond issue for new schools was followed by the hiring of a school superintendent at $19,000 per annum, more than twice the previous salary, and now our City Fathers are coming up with a bond issue for city improvements which will extend into $3,000,000 or $4,000,000. May we know how this is going to affect the taxing situation in our community?" K.E.

ANSWER: The proposed Capital Improvement Program for the City of Palm Springs includes a bond issue of items as set forth below, which are under preliminary consideration at present.

- 1. Sewerage system expansion $1,500,000
2. Golf Course land acquisition 350,000
3. Golf Course construction 400,000
4. DeMuth Park land acquisition 200,000
5. Airport land acquisition 400,000
6. Tachevah flood control storm drains 100,000
7. Street lights on Indian Avenue from Ramon Road to Tachevah Drive 75,000
8. Palm trees and lights on South Palm Canyon Drive from Ramon Road to Indian Trail 80,000

Because of the accelerated growth and development of Palm Springs, it is essential that we look toward the future in order to keep abreast of our forthcoming needs. These are projects which will serve for many years to come, and it felt proper that they be paid for by the people who will be enjoying the benefits over the next several decades.

Some projects are still in the negotiating stage, which means there may be a delay in construction or acquisition. It is emphasized that no bonds will be sold and there will consequently be no cost to the taxpayers until project negotiations have been completed in each individual case. It is also important to note that bonds on propositions passed by the public will not be sold in one total issue. Each item will be a separate proposition for public approval — there will be no grouping of subjects for public consideration.

As this total issue is not considered to be sold in its entirety, it is not possible to estimate the cost to the taxpayer on that basis. However, considering a $40,000,000 assessed valuation, the cost on property assessed at 5,000 would indicate first year tax payment in the amount of $10 per million dollars of bonds sold.

In subsequent years the cost would be increased as additional bonds are sold, and decreased by our ever-increasing assessed valuation.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

MRYTLE BEACH, S.C., NEWS: "Although the newspapers of the state each have their own characteristics, reflecting generally the communities they serve, there is one transcending principle by which they live — the desire to serve what they honestly believe to be the best interests of their communities, their state and their nation . . . When the voice of the press and the voice of the people join in a common crusade, public opinion — that fountainhead of power in our free nation — reaches its greatest effectiveness."

EDITOR'S CORNER
By Oliver B. Jaynes

YEAR-ROUND LAWNS — With so many people now living in Palm Springs throughout the year it will be good news to them to learn that a new combination of grasses is being developed that will produce a green lawn in this area throughout the year. Research on this subject is being carried on by Dr. Victor Younger, in charge of turf grass research program at the University of Southern California at Los Angeles, it is reported in the Desert Rancher, an Indio publication devoted to agriculture.

Up to now residents who wanted a lawn year-round have had to put in a Bermuda lawn and reseed with rye grass in the Fall to have a green Winter lawn. Experimentation has been under way for some time, combining Bermudas with several other types of grasses. Very good results have been obtained in some of the experiments at UCLA, and plans are being made to try out some of the new grass at the University Extension Service near Indio.

The expense of putting in a new lawn every year and still having unsightly dead grass in the front yard all Summer has always been a troublesome problem for year-round residents. An increasing number of people have solved the problem with dichondra which has the added advantage of saving the labor or expense of frequent mowing. It takes about a year to get a good stand of dichondra, and a lot of watering too which has been somewhat of a drawback to this type of lawn.

This possibility of a nice green lawn the year-round will be followed with a great deal of interest by residents of the Coachella Valley who live here 12 months of the year.

Tis close to 5 a.m.
Up at sunrise—yawning
Divides the boys from men.

Now that we are running a daily newspaper, one poor lonely soul must rise and shine as early as 5 a.m. in order to keep the wire news flowing freely, and start the City Desk on its way feeding the linotypes the top news of the day.

PHAT TURNED over this column to me one day a week (Thursday) and said that as long as I was collecting news of the Empire, the least I could do is use this space to write my personal views of the surrounding desert areas. It could be a wonderful opportunity, because it is a fast growing area, and the people who make up the daily life of the Desert make it a daily adventure.

THE DESERT EMPIRE includes a score of communities, some small, some large, but each of them reflects through its own citizens the importance of that community in the future of the greatest resort area in the world. Largest of the Empire's communities (unincorporated) are Cathedral City, and Desert Hot Springs, followed closely by Palm Desert, 1000 Palms, Morongo Valley, Rancho Mirage and La Quinta. Even the little "service station stop" of Indian Wells is feeling the growth of the Empire.

I WAS JUST A LITTLE surprised as I began traveling throughout the area to find that the year-round population had grown so much in the past couple of years. Within the next 30 days The Desert Sun will publish a special edition dedicated to the Coachella Valley, telling of the fabulous and sudden growth of the Empire. Billions of dollars are flooding into home and business developments between Palm Springs and Indio. People are pouring into the desert from the "smog" areas, and the future looks bright.

I KEEP HEARING of the "big dreams of the future." Things that if they came to pass, would make this area a residential district for metropolitan Los Angeles.

A rapid transit system between the desert and Los Angeles—commuters' train—limited—and traveling at a high speed;
The formation of a Desert County, already progressing slowly but steadily forward, with every possibility of becoming a reality;
The completion of the super highways, the "doing-away-with" bottlenecks between the Desert and Los Angeles;
And the not-to-be-forgotten Mt. San Jacinto Tramway, which will bring millions of tourist dollars into the Desert Empire.

EACH TIME I write this column, I would like to mention at least one person within the Empire who is doing more than his share to forward progress.

A PALM FOR SERVICE: To Sol Lesser, pioneer motion picture figure, who this week announced a 359 acre multimillion-dollar homesite development on the outskirts, this side of Indio, where he will build some 800 homes. The development has already been named Oasis del Sol (Oasis of the Sun).

See you all next Thursday!

Congressional Report
By Representative John Phillips

The last noon we were in Madrid, I had lunch in the pleasant little garden of the hotel. Before the luncheon was over, and without prearrangement, the Attorney General, Mr. Brownell, was eating there with a top man from the FBI, and their wives. The Comptroller General, Mr. Campbell, was there, with the District Attorney of New York City, also with their wives. The chairman of the Appropriations subcommittee which has the State Department budget, Mr. Rooney, was there with Congressman Fogarty of Rhode Island, also on the same committee, and they had a group which included an Assistant Secretary of the State Department and various aides and officials. I was eating alone, Mrs. Phillips having another engagement.

The first evening we arrived, we went into the same garden for supper and there was Harry Sheppard, with Mrs. Sheppard. They left two days later, as did Congressman Allen of Oakland, and his wife, and Congressman Clayton Powell, of Brooklyn. I've probably overlooked a few, and I know there were various Senators going and coming, including Senator Kuchel of our own State.

WHEN I FLEW TO PARIS on the 18th of September, to join the Comptroller General again, having parked Mrs. Phillips and the Volkswagen at Biarritz, where she could sit in the sun and watch the bathers, I found John Hollister, who has just taken over Harold Stassen's job, the economic aid program, and who was on the way back from Istanbul, from a meeting on international bank matters. I also had dinner unexpectedly, with Congressman King and Mrs. King of Los Angeles. Most of the men I saw in Paris earlier, at the agricultural meeting, were on the way to an important farm conference in Rome. There were some of our California farm organization and commodity representatives in the group. I was told by one state department man that 202 members of the Congress were traveling this year. That would be both Representatives and Senators. This points out two things: the increasing simplicity of travel, and the increasing interest in the Congress in our programs abroad. The first is understandable. You can walk on a plane in Washington or New York, carrying a coat and a small toilet case, and without having to carry your suitcase, and the next evening or the next morning you can be in London or in Paris or in Madrid. I flew up from Biarritz in exactly two hours, with no discomfort and practically no vibration. It took me three days to drive down.

NEW YORK — Al Siegel, the voice coach, says you got to holler at dames—and he's hollered at some of the world's best hollers, if you'll kindly excuse that synonym for "lady singer." "And another thing,"—he was hollering at his newest protegee, Jessica James, in Dinty Moore's restaurant—"I want you to light your own cigarettes! Quit chewing your nails. Lord, they look like hams part of the time. This dame—" he said, turning to me.

Jesse James, sometimes called Miss James, Ethel Merman-looking young girl, knew it was coming. "She was sloppy, had no pride, was insensitive . . . Al, who has worked with Ethel Merman, Martha Raye, Mary Martin, Julie Wilson, Dagmar and Ann Miller plus 100 others, was counting 'em off.

"Oh, no, not sloppy," winced Miss James, but thinking better of it, she nodded. "Yes, master, I was sloppy." "But," spoke up Al, "this broad's got it! She's my next girl singer. When she goes into La Vie, I'm going to play piano for her. The first time I've played piano for a dame in 15 years." "He likes me, that's why he yells at me," Jesse James said. "One day, though, he walked right out of rehearsal on me screaming 'I don't want to have any more to do with you.'"

IN THE FLIGHT KITCHEN of a big airline service they estimate that passengers travel about 25 miles while they toy with their appetizer, 110 miles while they eat the main course, 40 miles for the salad, and 35 more during dessert. In other words, a single dinner goes a long ways—230 miles!

"Uncle Herbert," implored little Jonnie, "for my birthday this year I'd like another snare drum just like the one you gave me last year." "I'm glad my last present was such a hit," beamed the uncle. "What made you like it so much?" Jonnie explained, "Daddy gave me ten cents every week not to beat it."

The Shangri-La-by-the-Sea was run on the American plan, and Mr. Mandelbaum was determined to get his money's worth. He had to give up, however, after four helpings of beef. "I can still chew," he sighed to his wife, "but I can't swallow any more."

Today, let's have three cheers for Carnation Cottage Cheese! Because it scores so high on freshness—on nutrition—on flavor. Ready?

The Cottage Cheese That's sure to please Both he and she's! Rah, rah, rah—Six boom bah, Carnation! Carnation!

GOOD NEWS for my dieting friends

Carnation Cottage Cheese has less calories than any other standard kind of cheese. Glad? And (ounce for ounce) it has as much good protein as beef. Surprised?

FIRST AID HINTS

(For when you play "medic" to your family!)

If a bandage sticks, a few drops of peroxide will loosen it and cleanse the skin at the same time.

If children dislike a certain medicine, first rub their tongues with ice. The cold helps freeze the taste buds.

If you can't find a splinter—but know it's there—put a bit of iodine on the area. The splinter'll show up dark!

What are "Salad Days"?

Strictly speaking, the dictionary defines the term salad days as "days of youthful inexperience." But in my book, salad days are days when you enjoy a tantalizing new salad such as this—

Green and Gold Salad

- (Makes about 8 servings)
- 1 1/2 cups (303 can) well-drained peach slices
- 1 1/2 cups water (or peach syrup and water)
- 1 package lime gelatin dessert
- 3 tablespoons lemon juice
- 2 cups Carnation Cottage Cheese
- 1/2 cup chopped pecans

Drain peaches and save syrup. Line bottom of 1 1/2-quart ring mold with peach slices. (Chop any leftover slices and mix with Cottage Cheese for gelatin.) Heat water to below boiling; pour gelatin into hot water. Stir until gelatin dissolves; chill until syrupy. Add remaining ingredients. Spoon into ring mold; chill about 2 hours or until firm.

Did you know gelatin is really a very old food? The first commercial gelatin was made in 1681. During the French Revolution—when many people were starving—Frenchmen began eating gelatin for its nourishment. But that early kind wasn't very appetizing—not nearly so good-tasting as the gelatin we have nowadays!

Carnation uses 3 whole quarts of milk, plus rich cream, to make just 1 pound of Carnation Cottage Cheese. Doesn't this make you want to try some real soon? Like today?

Western Air Expands News, Ad Operations

Expansion of advertising, sales promotion and public relations activities to pace the exceptional growth of Western Air Lines was reported today by Terrell C. Drinkwater, the airline's president.

Preparing for an accelerated program geared to major development of routes and services, he announced the appointment of Kenneth O. Smith as director of public relations, and Bert D. Lynn as director of advertising and sales promotion.

The increase in information services is expected to play a key role in preparation for the continued development of Western's regional route system and the expansion of public services that will accompany anticipated growth, Drinkwater declared.

Western, which serves 45 cities including Palm Springs in 12 western states and Canada over a 5,525-mile system, has achieved a 300 percent increase in business since 1945.

In carrying out the stepped-up advertising and promotion program, Lynn will be responsible to Arthur F. Kelly, W.A.L.'s vice president-sales, while Smith will direct public relations and press activities, reporting to Paul E. Sullivan, vice president-administration. Division of a former joint advertising-public relations office into the two new departments will enable the sales division to devote its efforts exclusively to sales promotion and advertising, while the new public relations department will act as a service unit for all divisions of the airline, Drinkwater explained.

Both Smith and Lynn have served with Western since 1950.

Bryant Enters Not Guilty Plea

O. P. Bryant, 31, 438 South El Segundo, Tuesday entered a plea of not guilty to assault charges when arraigned in Judge Ray Hawley's justice court in Banning Tuesday. He was arrested Saturday night on charges of shooting John R. Rayson, 35, 219 South El Segundo, following an argument at the Three Musketeers, located at the intersection of Tipton Road and Highway 99.

Preliminary hearing for Bryant was set for 10 a.m., Thursday, November 17. He was released on $1,000 bail.

Hotel Survey Conducted Here

Palm Springs Hotel and Apartment Association is currently conducting a survey of members and non-members to determine what hotel facilities exist in Palm Springs.

The questionnaire asks the name, address, owner, manager, rates, number of units, type of units, pool, tennis, croquet, badminton, other recreation, time open, meals served, bar, whether or not children and pets are accepted.

A report will be compiled after all questionnaires have been returned.

Knitting Expert to Give Lessons

Liz Blackwell, nationally known for her clever handknit originals, will visit Mr. and Mrs. George Cummings this weekend and on Monday and Tuesday will demonstrate the Speed-O-Knit hand knitting at their Art-Craft Shop, 320 South Indian Avenue.

"The Speed-O-Knit enables a non-knitter to knit like a professional," the Cummings said.

THREE FRIENDS look over the outline of a magazine story during their stay at the Mira Monte Hotel. INTEREST IN RACING BRINGS TWO ARGENTINE DOCTORS TO VILLAGE

By PHIL GALLISHAW

Dr. Vicente Alvarez, attached to the Department of Surgery at the Spanish Hospital in Buenos Aires, wanted to see the United States, had planned on it for a long time. He made it, and is now in Palm Springs. He made it, but it took months of clever thought, hard work, constant sustaining of his affability and warm, leveling sense of humor, and determination.

He is a man of myriad talents, interests, and capacities: he owns a sanatorium in San Fernando, a town 10 miles from Buenos Aires where he spent seven years as resident surgeon in the federally operated hospital before taking charge of the surgery department at the Spanish hospital.

AT 18 HE WON medals in eight of the 12 sport car reliability runs he entered with a baling wire and chewing gum

Marmon. He is a member of the Sport Car Club of Argentina, founded in 1948, though road racing and reliability runs have been a national spectator sport in Argentina for more than 20 years.

He writes articles about racing of all types for magazines in the United States, Argentina, Germany, France, England Italy and other countries around the globe. And he is keenly interested in studying the techniques of hospitals here so that he will be able to better, if possible, medicine in his country.

WHILE WRITING and selling his articles to European markets, he formulated a plan to finance his present trip. He read an article in Speed Age Magazine by Palm Springs Winter visitor Walter Woestman, contacted Woestman, asking him to take money made from the sales and start a savings account in Woestman's New York bank.

This not only involved a proxy, similar to a power of attorney, but implicit faith in the American author. The American junket, then, was out of the planning stage.

He continued to oversee his clinic, to run the Spanish Hospital's surgery, operating as much as twice a day, and to write his articles.

HIS FIRST SALES, instead of paying for the anticipated trip, went out for equipment for the sanatorium which could not be obtained in Argentina. He stayed in Buenos Aires longer than he wanted to, but he had to start another stockpile, and he continued to aid the progress of medicine for his country. He helped students from the Medicine School in Buenos Aires who came to study the technique of an operating room.

One of these students was also a sport car enthusiast, but unlike Dr. Alvarez he liked to drive the fast ones rather than write about them. He is Oscar Luis Camano, 22-year-old son of the Minister of Public Health, a non-political position, who is also a wealthy Buenos Aires architect.

Oscar grew up watching his older brother race sport cars, and combining the proximity of the cars and the infectious enthusiasm of Dr. Alvarez, started racing when he turned 20. He has owned and raced a Cistalla, a Jaguar, and Ferraris.

His record is more than competent. He followed right behind the winner at the La Plata with a four litre car, came in third in the 1000 km. World Championship at Buenos Aires, in his 2.5 litre Ferrari, and placed third at the Mar del Plata in February, also in his 2.5 litre. The Mar del

BLAZING SPEEDS in turns during Mar del Plata sport car race in Argentina helped Oscar Luis Camano push his 2.5 litre Ferrari to third place in the grand last February. Camano, a medical student in Buenos Aires, is visiting Palm Springs during his first trip to the United States. His trip was postponed three weeks until a ban on commercial flights leaving Argentina was lifted a week ago. (Alvarez Photo)

Plata, a twisting and turning course similar to the one at Monte Carlo, was considered by experts to be his best race to date, and he is marked by many in the know as the coming champion.

OSCAR WAS APPOINTED to Dr. Alvarez's staff, as his assistant, and shows as much promise and flair in the surgical profession as behind the wheel. According to the surgeon, Oscar's vocation and avocation provide a perfect balance for his fiery spirit. The tension of surgery, the responsibility of holding the spark of another person's life in his hand, and the altogether different type of tension of racing, where the life he is responsible for is his own, seem to complement each other to the point where driving fast makes him a better surgeon and being a better surgeon makes him a better driver.

Oscar wanted to come to the United States, just as Dr. Alvarez did, but he had to complete some work in Argentina and was forced to wait until a month ago. At that time, no planes were leaving Buenos Aires. Though he had money in a New York bank, previously put there by his father, he couldn't leave until after the fall of Peron's regime, until Peron was in a gunboat in the harbor outside Buenos Aires.

THE FIRST FLIGHT leaving the Argentine capital carried the young man to Miami. He was delayed in his trek to Palm Springs, momentarily, when he enjoyed the relaxation of rowing around Miami's waterways in a rented boat so much he missed his connection. Now the threesome, Dr. Alvarez, Oscar, and host Woestman will head for Woestman's Altadena home to use as a base of operations while the doctor spends a week full of long-houred days at the Huntington Memorial Hospital in Pasadena.

Stiffer Fines for Litterbugs Urged

LOS ANGELES (UP)—A state official today urged stiffer fines against motorists who throw trash along highways in Los Angeles, Orange and Ventura counties because it is costing state taxpayers $5,000,000 a year to clean up the roadside litter. W. D. Sedgwick, district maintenance engineer for the state Division of Highways said stiffer fines would not only help defray the cleanup cost, but might also discourage motorists from throwing refuse from their cars.

Western Fashions Will Be Modeled at Club Luncheon

In pre-Western Week mood, Noel Clarke's Palm Springs Ranch Club is staging a Western Fashion Show luncheon tomorrow at 12:30.

The Western atmosphere of the club's Round Up Room will be the appropriate setting for the display of riding outfits, ranch wear, and dude Western clothes being shown by Rasmussen's Saddlery. Frank Borgert will commentate the show in his own inimitable fashion.

Seven beautiful girls, Marilyn Barwick, Robin Clark, Alice Walker, Ida Keeney, Clessa Williams, Karen Gerstenzang and Shirley Stueve will model the collection of Western wear. Background music for the luncheon showing will be furnished by Hal White and his orchestra who are back at the

Soroptimists Hear Report on Traffic Safety Meet

Richard Blackstone, just back from Sacramento where he attended The Governor's Traffic Safety Conference, reported on the convention when he was on the program at Soroptimists' luncheon meeting at Chi Chi on Tuesday.

There were six divisions for the 900 adults who attended and one for the 100 teen-agers. The younger group discussed what can be done to increase respect for laws, what student councils can do to establish traffic safety programs, requirements for teen-age licenses, and the problem of going to and from school activities, Richard reported.

He said it was decided at the conference that cooperation between school children and traffic officers could be improved by officers talking to Drivers' Education classes, meeting with P.T.A. groups and student officer groups.

In his talk he expressed gratitude to Soroptimist Club, one of the sponsoring groups that made his trip to the convention possible.

Wynne Hammond presided over the brief business session, with the following delegates named to attend the District conference at Laguna on Saturday: Wynne Hammond, Lorna Little, Lois Lux, Eileen Carey and Helen O'Brien.

The club voted to send a check to the Cancer Fund in memory of Olive Perdue, former member, who passed away on October 7.

Georgia Corporon, past president and sustaining member from Whittier, now living at Rancho Mirage, was a guest at Tuesday's meeting.

The program for next Tuesday will be reports from the District conference.

Former Neighbors Meet by Chance

Mrs. Grace Borchert of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Thorwald Kvass of Los Angeles were house guests of the Bill Rashalls recently. An interesting incident took place while the two ladies were walking down Palm Canyon Drive. A woman approached Mrs. Borchert and asked if she was from Washington, D. C., and after being told she was, the stranger said she had lived on the same street with Mrs. Borchert and used to watch her go to work each morning for six years. They had actually never met before their chance meeting in the Village. The stranger is now residing in Riverside.

Opening of Famed Indian Canyons Set for Saturday

50,000 Visited
Palm, Andreas
Areas in 1954-55

By DON KLOTZBUECHER

The mecca of thousands of visitors each year in search of quiet and solitude, rest and relaxation, picnics and pleasure, will open for the Fall and Winter season on Saturday.

Naturally, in Palm Springs, this is the famed Palm and Andreas Canyon area, located at the end of Palm Canyon Drive.

Each year thousands of visitors come from throughout Southern California to spend a day walking through the canyons or just enjoying the peaceful atmosphere which age-old palms produce.

During the 1954-55 season, an estimated 50,000 persons passed through the toll gate operated by the Agua Caliente Band of Mission Indian owners.

A MINOR FEE is charged for entry to the world famous canyons, with funds raised used for repair of roads, maintenance and addition of facilities.

This past Summer crews of men were busy at work in both Palm and Andreas Canyons, cleaning out underbrush and generally improving the picturesque areas.

The canyons with their rare Washington Palms have always attracted a large amount of attention—not only in Southern California from where the greatest number of visitors come, but throughout the entire nation.

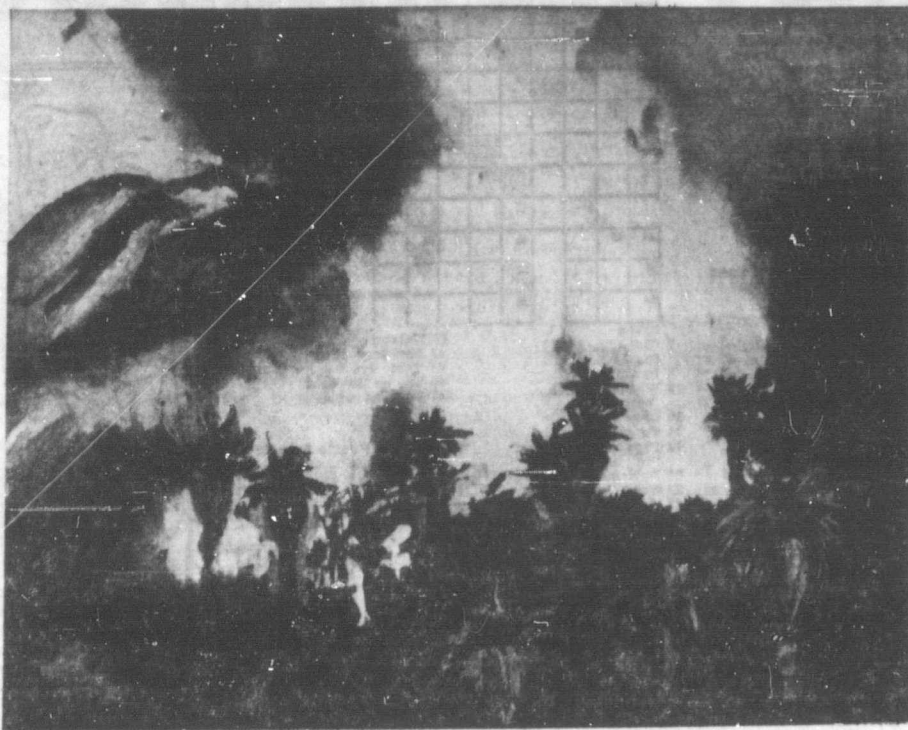

Newspapers throughout the country termed it a major catastrophe when a fire swept through one-eighth of a mile of the canyon area in 1940. The trees at that time lived up to their reputation of hardiness and the next Fall only 10 of 678 trees burned failed to leaf out again.

ONLY SEVEN YEARS before, in 1933, another fire threatened the area by sweeping over the Tahquitz Mountain ridge into the west fork of Palm Canyon. This blaze was controlled without producing major damage.

Memories of these two conflagrations have caused the Agua Caliente Tribal Council to impose strict fire regulations in the Canyon areas. Among these are:

No smoking anywhere except on the Hermit's Bench above Palm Canyon; no camp fires; no overnight camping. The canyons are closed during the Summer months as an added fire precaution.

TIME WAS WHEN anyone could camp in the canyons, and the story of the closing of the areas attracted much newspaper space. This action was taken in 1923 by the United States Field Service, as campers had been discarding rubbish, polluting streams and generally ruining the natural beauty of the area.

Then came the regulated visits, with everyone required to be out of the Canyon areas by 5 p. m.

Proposals have been made several times that the Canyon areas be converted into national parks, but the Indian owners have always refused to sell. Perhaps the most serious attempt was in 1923, when an offer of $22,000 was made by the government, after authorization from Congress.

EVEN IN RECENT YEARS this suggestion has been advanced, with no action having been taken. Now, as before, it is expected that such a move would be vigorously opposed by a majority of the tribe. The canyons are as much a heritage which cannot be destroyed or taken away, as is the famed tribal mineral spring.

And thousands of visitors to this area will discover this heritage again this year, starting October 15.

Plans for Youth Center Set by Plates, Directors

Carl and Ynez Plate, co-directors of the Youth Center, met with the board of directors this week and discussed plans for the future of the teen-age club. Renovation of the building is under way, Plate said, including pest control, a new drink dispenser to replace the obsolete machine, and complete check of wiring and lighting fixtures to insure safety and to make the Center more attractive inside and out.

Mrs. Erna H. Polliak, secretary of the Board of Directors, wrote a letter of thanks to Palm Springs Community Television Service for their free repair of the Center's set.

POLICY OF THE Center was brought to tangible terms when Plate explained to the Board that two types of youth recreation facilities are available.

The drop-in forms, planned to give teen-agers a way to constructively use their time when they have an hour or so to spend, includes a portable pool table, three ping-pong sets, basketball, television, a piano, and various other games and recreational time users.

THE SCHEDULED forms include club activities: dances, camera club meetings in the well-equipped dark room, a baby-sitters class run by Mrs. Plate, a class on silk screen printing, athletic teams, a stamp and coin club, outings, and a chess school. These activities will work hand-in-hand to supplement each other. The silk screen class will print the emblems for the baby-sitter class graduates, which will be made by a yet-to-be-formed sewing class.

Mr. and Mrs. Plate, originally from the south, were co-directors of the Corona department of Parks and Recreation for four years before taking over here in September. They both majored in youth work in college, and Plate is drafting the final notes on his thesis for a

Sign Ordinance Returns Friday to Indio Court

Appeal of the sign ordinance decision handed down in justice court here by Judge Eugene E. Theriault will be heard in Superior court in Indio Friday by Judge Hilton McCabe.

Originally scheduled in Riverside Superior court, it was transferred to the Indio jurisdiction last Friday by Judge O. K. Morton.

James and Mary Carlin, owners of El Tram Hotel, are seeking to reverse the justice court decision which upheld the constitutionality of the sign ordinance.

The city, represented by City Attorney Jerry Bunker, will contest the action. Its ordinance requires that rate signs be not displayed on the outside of buildings in the interest of public health and welfare.

Date Premiums Increased for 1956 County Fair

Premium awards for dates have been increased by more than 30 per cent for the 1956 Riverside County Fair and National Date Festival at Indio, February 16 to 22.

Fair manager Robert Fullenwider announced this week that both the cash awards and the variety in displays has been stepped up as an incentive to bring into the national date show more of Coachella Valley's finest fruits.

Growers are urged to set aside their best dates this season for exhibition. Free cold storage facilities are provided at Indio for those who are to show at the fair.

According to Fullenwider the new classes will include plate and rack displays of different varieties grown in Coachella Valley.

He pointed out that most fairgoers come from outside the date growing area and one of the major attractions for these people is the displays of dates. Some have expressed disappointment that in the past not enough dates were on exhibition.

The Riverside County Fair and National Date Festival is the only county or state fair in the nation that features displays of domestic dates.

"HALF SHAVED PEACH"

The other night I was watching television and during the commercial a fellow with a lot of expensive teeth came out and demonstrated an Electric razor by shaving a peach. I sure wish I could get that job because I have a lot of ideas to really make a Spectacular production out of it. If I was doing it I'd have a little tilt-back chair for the peach and a tiny Styptic pencil in case I knicked it and juice started to leak out. Then when I finished shaving the peach I'd give a manicure to a banana and a haircut to a Pineapple. If this went over well I could encore by massaging a Nectarine or giving a Coconut a Shampoo. With a routine like that I should have no trouble getting a sponsor--like a Fruit Salad Co. Or maybe a Straight-Jacket Dealer.

Indians Meet Arabs Tomorrow Night

Palm Springs Vies Against Loop's Best

Power-Packed
Coachella Host to Local Gridders

The Palm Springs Indians will meet power-packed Coachella Valley High's Arabs tomorrow at the Coachella Valley high school football field. Kick off time is 8 p. m.

The Indians tied Elsinore's Tigers in their first Riverside county league game last week, 6-6, putting them in a third place tie with Banning, Hemet, and Elsinore in the eight-team league.

The Arabs steamrollered Perris Friday 39-6, with a flashing display of passing and broken-field running perfection.

INDIAN FULLBACK Manuel Montoya last week was credited with scoring a Palm Springs' late touchdown by falling on the ball in the end zone after a blocked Elsinore punt. Montoya took a pass onto pay dirt minutes later in the game, but saw his effort voided by a backfield in motion penalty, leaving the final score at 6-6.

Coachella Valley high's halfback Gordon Finch and fullback Bo Wallace worked 20 points out of their opponents last Friday in the fourth quarter with well oiled teamwork in running attacks.

According to Palm Springs coach, Clare Ballagh, the Indians have been working all week on defense and offense plays, hoping to nick the weak spots as reported by scouts at last week's Coachella Valley-Perris tiff.

TOMORROW NIGHT'S FIELD of action is located six miles south of Indio and a mile and a half south of Coachella.

Other league games are Beaumont at Hemet, Perris at Banning, and San Jacinto at Elsinore. Last week's performances indicate that Coachella will defeat Palm Springs by three touchdowns, Hemet over Beaumont by two TDs, Banning and Perris should tie, and Elsinore will be a 20 point underdog when they meet the league's nearly-best San Jacinto.

San Jose Club Sold by Red Sox to Ad Firm

SAN JOSE, (UP)—The Boston Red Sox have sold their San Jose farm club of the California State League to a San Jose advertising agency executive and former publicist. Financial terms of the sale have not been announced but Chuck Mallory, who bought the club, will take over January 1, 1956.

Sports Sputterings

By WALTER L. JOHNS, Central Press Sports Editor

ITEMS OF SPORTS info picked up here and there and strung along the typewriter... Bud Wilkinson, the Oklahoma coach, has a weekly "Football Letter" which goes to paid members of the Oklahoma Alumni Assoc. ... Jimmy Carter, who has won the lightweight crown three times, tries for a fourth Oct. 19 when Wallace (Bud) Smith defends his title in Cincinnati in a nationally televised bout ... Ralph (Tiger) Jones, the middleweight fighter, received that tag after his second pro fight when a ringsider was impressed with his sustained punching style ... Ted Williams, the Red Sox socker, landed five Atlantic salmon averaging 12 pounds each in New Brunswick last week ... Ted was using his own manufactured fly rod ... Homecoming Day for college football games began 45 years ago when Illinois set one up in game against Chicago ... "Happy" Felton, the Dodgers' great fan and sponsor, now is heading a game fishing team in the Puerto Rico event Oct. 24 ... Pro basketball, which folded in St. Louis in 1950, returns this year as the Milwaukee franchise in the National Basketball Assoc. was transferred to the Mound City last May ... The team has some big names including Bob Pettit, Frank Selvy, Dick Ricketts, Jack Stephens and Al Ferrari ... The club is called the Hawks ... Willie Hartack is headed for a 400-win season on the track and will be the second jockey in history to break the 400 mark ... Willie Shoemaker, running second to Hartack in the national jockey race, has a better percentage average than does Hartack ... When Minnesota missed tying Purdue by a point in their recent Big Ten battle the Gophers were playing with seven of their first 22 varsity players out of the lineup because of injuries.

MARQUETTE has a quarterback coming up who cracked Norm Van Brocklin's T.D. passing mark at Piedmont, Calif. High ... He is Leo Cumbellich, freshman, who threw 22 touchdown passes last year ... Alan Ameche, the All-American from Wisconsin who now plays with the Baltimore Colts, has matching jersey number and auto license plates ... Oklahoma gained 237 more yards on the ground against Pitt than did Syracuse and California combined ... Bill Reed, the assistant commissioner of the Big Ten, has compared offenses in football of today and 15 years ago and finds that the T-formation and split-T have speeded up the game, made for higher scoring, more scrimmage plays, greater yardage totals and a marked increase in passing accuracy ... Golf, not baseball, has dominated the balloting for the professional athlete of the year award ... Five golfers were monthly winners in the first eight months of balloting ... Here's an unusual one ... College of Pacific grid team gained 200 yards passing against Texas Tech in 1953 and lost the game ... Last year the Pacific squad gained only two yards passing and won ... Bones of Sysonby, one of the great race horses of the early 1900's, are mounted and placed in the American Museum of Natural history ... Sysonby won 14 of 15 races in 1904-05 ... Cranwood race track, outside Cleveland, recently ran the "poor man's Derby" in which the contenders were horses which had not won a race in 1955 ... A tin cup went to the winner and the jockey received a horseshoe of dandelions ... All wool parade uniforms will be worn by the U. S. team at the Winter Olympic Games at Cortina D'Ampezzo, Italy ... Twenty-three Brazilian stations heard the recent Marciano-Moore title bout described by their ace sportscaster who was at Yankee stadium ... Otto Graham will coach the Eastern team in the first annual Senior Christian Bowl game at Murfreesboro, Tenn., Monday, December 31, unless the Browns are engaged in a post-season game.

Jayvees Tangle with Arabs on Local Gridiron

By DICK BLANTON

Under the direction of Coach Al Kazmier, Palm Springs' Jayvees entertain the little Arabs from Coachella here in their second gridiron contest on the season tonight at 7, hoping to make a comeback after bowing to Elsinore's Jayvees 20-0 last week on the Tiger field.

Backed by a reserve force of almost 30, the starting eleven will be Jimmy Allen and Le Roy Segundo at ends, Bill Heck and John Simon holding down the tackle spots, Gary Soule and Joe Lewis occupying the guard positions, Bobby Flores and John Stanbrook working as halfbacks, Jan Dunham at tailback, and Brent Davis calling the signals.

After meeting Coachella tonight, the Jayvees face Banning October 20 here, Hemet October 27 on the Bulldog field, and Beaumont November 10 at the Cougar's lair. Coach Kazmier feels that the team is "shaping up" and looks forward to a good season.

Hill Puts Troy Through Tough Scrimmage Drill

LOS ANGELES (UP)—Southern California went through tapering off drills today for its game tomorrow night here against Wisconsin after Coach Jess Hill sprung a surprise scrimmage on the team yesterday.

Usually the Trojans don't engage in heavy contact drills on Wednesday when they have a Friday night game. Hill said the team needed the heavy workout.

The hard running of sophomore fullback C. R. Roberts featured the scrimmage. Roberts has moved on to the first team, ahead of veteran Gordon Duval. Halfback Jon Arnett returned to practice yesterday for contact work after missing two days of drills because of a shoulder injury.

Watch Hornung Saturday to See Notre Dame Offense

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (UP)—Keep your eye on No. 5 in the Notre Dame lineup Saturday when the Irish play Michigan State in the national television football game, and you won't miss any of the Notre Dame offense.

No. 5 is Paul Hornung, the 205-pound quarterback, who last year was the Irish fullback as a sophomore. This season, Hornung has carried the Notre Dame attack in three games, passing once in a while, but handling the ball expertly on every play.

IT MIGHT TAKE A sharp watch to see some of the hand-offs particularly those quick lateral thrusts to halfback Aubrey Lewis, No. 23, on "pop" plays, through the line.

Vancouver Signs Pact with Orioles

OAKLAND (UP)—The Vancouver, B. C., club of the Pacific Coast League today announced it had signed a working agreement with the Baltimore Orioles of the American League.

President C. L. Brick Laws made the announcement here and at the same time revealed that he had hired Cedric Tallis, 39, from Montgomery, Ala., to serve as general manager of the club.

FOR HOME OR INCOME

Cathedral City Offers Special Advantages

MIDWAY between Palm Springs and Palm Desert. It is a natural shopping center for the entire area, including the famous Thunderbird and Tamarisk Clubs which are on its immediate outskirts. This strategic location plus its situation upon the slope of the hills overlooking the desert where it is protected from wind storms also make it an ideal residential community. It is small enough to be quiet and unpretentious — large enough to provide the facilities for comfortable and gracious living.

PROOF of the pudding is in the eating. Cathedral City has more than doubled in population and assessed valuation in 10 years. Come out and look us over. We have the answers.

PlayerStage Has Large Cast for Hilarious Farce

An unusually large cast is in rehearsal now for the Thursday, October 20 opening of the Player Stage production of the hit comedy "You Can't Take It With You".

"Martin Beck and Lee Krikorian, directors of the fast growing local theatre group have come up with the largest cast to date."

John Kramer, Helen Morris, Wilma Wilson Oertle, Jay Oertle, Karl Christie, Audrey Krueger, Iz Singer, Jacques Meade, Lee Krikorian, and Frances Holmes appear in leading roles and all have been seen in previous Player Stage productions. New additions to the group are Johnny Butah, Ralph Gallzerano, Leo Athens, Ruth Singer and Jane DeVivier. "You Can't Take It With You" acknowledged as the most unconventional farce comedy of the time, is regarded as one of the most difficult plays to prepare for the stage. It is a jumble of snakes, xylophones, printing presses, antiques and ballet dancers, with fireworks popping in the cellar and general insanity prevailing.

Eight performances are scheduled Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Monday nights October 20, 21, 22, 23 and 24, and the following weekend, October 28, 29 and 31 at 8:45 on the stage of the American Legion Theatre Auditorium.
